INTRODUCTION.

THE Tanjore Mahārāja Serfoji's Sarasvatī Mahāl Library, which is described by Dr. Burnell "to be perhaps the largest and most important in the world" and which Dr. Bühler says "contains a great many useful and a number of very rare or nearly unique books many of which are quite unknown or procurable only with great trouble and expense" was till recently the private property of the Rājas of Tanjore.

The earliest beginnings of the Library must have been about the end of the 16th century when Tanjore was under the rule of Telugu Nāyaks who collected Sanskrit Manuscripts written in Telugu character. In the 18th century the Mahrathas conquered the country and since that date the Library has been increasing. By far the greater portion of the collection was made by Serfoji during a visit to Benares during 1820—1830. Śivāji his successor added a few. There has practically been no addition of any value till very recent times. A good number of Sanskrit Manuscripts including rare and valuable manuscripts representing the collection of generations of a family of scholars, known as the "Jambunātha Bhaṭ Lāṇḍagai Collection" was added to the Library in 1921.

Regarding the origin and importance of this collection, Dr. Hultzch has the following interesting information in No. III "Reports on Sanskrit Manuscripts in Southern India", edited by him in 1905 at Madras:—

"The manuscripts described in this Report belong to Jambunātha bhaṭṭa, a Mahratha Brāhmaṇa at Tanjore, who is the eldest son of a certain Mannambhaṭṭa. He is a no mean Sanskrit Scholar and knows the whole Ṛgveda by heart. As he is continually teaching the text of this sacred book to students, even his blind daughter has learnt to recite portions of it. The existence of his Library was brought to my notice by Mr. T. S. Kuppuswāmi Śāstrī, of the Educational Department, who is favourably known to Sanskritists by his paper on Rāmabhadra Dīkṣitar. During my absence on furlough in Europe, my First Assistant, Mr. V. Venkayya, M.A., was deputed to Tanjore in order to catalogue Jambunātha's collection. He spent three months at this work, in which he received the valuable aid of Mr. Kuppuswāmi Śāstrī. Both the list and the extracts testify to the thoroughness and care with which he has accomplished his task. From his Annual Report on Epigraphy for 1898—99 I quote the following details about Jambunātha's collection :—

"He is the eldest of the three brothers and is descended from a family whose influence is reported to have been very great when the Mahraṭha Kingdom of Tanjore was in existence. When manuscripts were obtained for the Palace Library from Benares and other places in Northern India, the ancestors of Jambunātha bhaṭṭa appear to have systematically used their influence to make their collection of Sanskrit works. This accounts for the existence in this collection of a large number of ancient manuscripts evidently copied in Northern India. The texts were transcribed by the members of the family, who appear to have been learned men. This, according to the present owner of this Library, was how this collection came into existence. The manuscripts are all written in Nāgarī characters and on loose sheets of paper. Having been frequently handled by ignorant and careless men the manuscripts became mixed up, and the owner, who despaired of restoring order among them, made them into bundles and tied them with cloth. About two years ago, Mr. Kuppuswāmi Śāstrī, to whom examination of Sanskrit manuscripts is a labour of love, prepared a tentative list of the contents of these bundles. When I went to Tanjore on the 2nd January, Jambunāthabhaṭṭa showed me about one hundred of these bundles. A cursory inspection of them satisfied me that the Library was an important one, and it should be carefully examined. This meant that not only should these works which were still complete be registered in my list, but that an attempt should also be made to put together pieces which, through careless handling, had got out of their places."

In 1922, the Library received other valuable collections of rare interest, known as the "Kagalkar" and the "Pataṅga Avadhūta" collections. The former is about 150 and the latter, about 100 years old. The collection made by the Kagalkar Family of learned Sanskrit Scholars of Tanjore especially versed in Sanskrit Grammar (व्याकरणम्) contains the autograph copies made by some of them of the works composed by themselves and others. Its prominent feature is the collection of works on Sanskrit Grammar. The collection made by Pataṅgāvadhūta whose descendants settled at Tiruvaḍamarudūr in Tanjore District contains a large number of works on Vedānta (वेदान्तम्) and Bhakti (भक्तिः). Both these collections comprise several Manuscripts which do not already exist in this Library.

The attention of the Government of India and through it of the Government of Madras was directed in 1868 to the importance of the examination, purchase or transcription of Sanskrit Manuscripts in Indian Libraries and the framing of printed lists or catalogues of the same. (Proceedings of the Government of India in the Home Department (Public), No. 4338-48, dated Simla, 3rd November 1868).

In respect of magnitude as well as the range of subjects dealt with, not to speak of the diversity of languages employed, the Tanjore Library is probably second to none among Oriental Libraries in India.

In December of the same year, the Government of Madras asked Mr. Pickford, Professor of Sanskrit, to carry out the instructions of the Government of India. He commenced to catalogue the manuscripts at Tanjore but he fell seriously ill and had to return to Europe in March 1870 and never came back to India. It is not known how much he had done as his unfinished catalogues could not be found. (Letter from the Professor of Sanskrit, Presidency College, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, 22nd May 1876, and Letter No 1560, dated Madras, 7th June 1876, from the Director of Public Instruction Madras, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.)

Thereupon Dr. Burnell, District and Sessions Judge, was appointed in G.O. No. 71, dated 16th March 1871, to catalogue the Sanskrit Library at Tanjore. That learned Scholar devoted a great deal of research and labour tothe task and his catalogue which he styled "A classified Index to the Sanskrit Manuscripts in the Palace at Tanjore," was published in three parts between 1878 and 1880 in London. This is now the chief key to the huge Sanskrit collection in this Library. But unfortunately a great many manuscripts, above 4,000, seem to have been omitted and his catalogue cannot be said to be complete.

During the course of his preparation of the catalogue Dr. Burnell wrote to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras from Bangalore on 6th August 1873 as follows :—

"It may perhaps be asked if the Library is worth the labour spent on it. I can answer unhesitatingly that it is. It is now a recognised fact that nearly all Sanskrit works of importance exist in different recensions. The Tanjore Library is unrivalled in this respect ; it contains several good manuscripts of all the most important ones known as yet, including a few that are new ....The Tanjore Library, however, contains additional manuscripts of most of the works which I had discovered elsewhere, and this is a matter of great importance.

I believe that this Library must, sooner or later escheat to the Government. The preparation of this catalogue will therefore protect property of enormous value. Sanskrit Manuscripts have long been very dear and the cost of making proper transcripts is now very heavy. As far as I can judge, it would not be possible to form a collection like that at Tanjore at a less cost than £50,000 but many manuscripts are unquestionably unique. "

The Tanjore Mahārājā Serfoji's Sarasvatī Mahāl Library is now a public library in the full sense of that term, the Government of Madras through the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments, being responsible for its administration. The collection belonged to the reigning princes of Tanjore—the Mahraṭha Mahārājas. When the last of them died leaving no direct male heir and after the death of the last surviving Rāṇi this collection together with the other properties formed the subject of litigation in civil courts. There was a rumour a few years ago that the collection had attracted the attention of some wealthy patrons of learning from Overseas. And it would appear that arrangements were very nearly ready to sell the whole collection outright at an assessed value, when public attention was focussed on certain remarks of Dr. Burnell to the effect that "it would not be possible to form a collection like that at Tanjore at a less cost than £ 50,000". The parties concerned had perforce to wake up and the deal was not immediately concluded. The public of Tanjore also began to interest themselves in the affair adequately. It was rightly considered as a question of National pride. The parties in O. S. No. 26 of 1912 on the file of the Subordinate Judge of Tanjore agreed that it was eminently fit that the Library should be preserved and maintained as a public Library in trust for the public and removed the Library and one lakh of rupees to provide for its upkeep, from the subject-matter of the suit. The Government of Madras in G. O. No. 1306 Home (Education), dated 5th October 1918, accordingly took possession of the same under the Charitable Endowments Act and have framed a scheme for the management of the same.

Since the Library became a Public Trust there has been a marked improvement in the reception accorded to it by the public. Various liberal and generous-minded benefactors have come forward with magnanimous offers. The Library has been enriched with several very fine collections of manuscripts, every one of them rare, valuable and very interesting. The Kagalkar collection, Jambunātha Bhaṭ Lāṇḍagai collection and the Pataṅga Avadhūta collection—all these three alone number 2181 manuscripts. Besides these, the Tygarāja Svāmi collection which alone contains more than 1000 manuscripts; then the minor collections—the Subrahmaṇya Śāstri collection, Subrahmanya Rao collection, Ramachandra Gaṇapat collections—all are of great and paramount importance.

The manuscripts are either on palm leaf or on paper. They are of very different value and come from very different sources. A large collection of these are recent Nāgarī copies of Manuscripts in South Indian characters and are at least a century old.

These manuscripts are in more than eleven distinct alphabets being from all parts of India. On the whole, one may easily say that the total number of manuscripts now in this Library is likely to exceed 30,000.

A large number of original records belonging to the last reigning house of Tanjore which will be of very great importance for reconstructing the political and social history of the Mahraṭha rule in Southern India has recently been transferred to the care of this Library from the Civil Court by order of the Judge.

Besides these manuscripts there are also a number of books and Manuscripts in almost all the Indian and European languages and on almost all branches of human knowledge. Special mention may here be made of the books and manuscripts in Telugu, Tamil, Mahraṭhi and English on account of their number and importance.

Dr. Burnell issued what he modestly styled "A classified Index to the Sanskrit Manuscripts in the Palace at Tanjore," between 1878 and 1880. Between 1880 and 1918 for very nearly forty years, the Library has been the victim of many an outrage. Those who were in possession gave out on loan very many manuscripts which were never returned. And many more somehow or other, found themselves into Libraries other than at Tanjore. Dr. Burnell's catalogue is very usful to us to trace out lost manuscripts, which are never likely to come back to us. Our losses are probably far more: for even Dr. Burnell's admirable catalogue was by no means a complete catalogue of all that existed. For, where he mentions a single work in a bundle, we are able to-day to trace two or more works in the same bundle.

The Committee appointed by the Government of Madras took charge early in 1919. Since then, they have been busily pushing forward the work of revising and preparing a fresh catalogue of all the works now in the Library according to the latest scientific methods. Each work is described in detail in a card-index-form which contains all the necessary particulars.

In 1920 a Catalogue of printed books in French, Latin, Italian and Greek was published. In 1926 three volumes of a Catalogue of Tamil Manuscripts in the Library were published. These are now on sale and can be had from the Secretary of the Library.

The Administrative Committee of the Library approached the Government of Madras, year after year with the request for a special grant to enable them to prepare and publish a descriptive catalogue of the Sanskrit Manuscripts in this Library. In their G. O. No. Mis 563 Dated 9th April 1927, the Government of Madras were pleased to allot the necessary funds for a three-year programme for carrying out the long delayed desire of the Committee. The work of cataloguing and printing has since been pushed forward with great rapidity.

The First Volume of the Descriptive Catalogue of Sanskrit Manuscripts is now published. The first Volume contains notices of 697 Manuscripts belonging to the Veda Section. The Veda section is expected to comprise in all about 2000 Manuscripts and will be completed in three Volumes. The third and last Volume will contain a detailed introduction to all the Manuscripts contained in the Veda Section besides the various indexes and other useful information.

In issuing this Catalogue, I have great pleasure in acknowledging gratefully the loyal and ever-ready assistance I have been uniformly getting from Rao Sahib. T. Sambamurthi Rao avl. B.A. B.L. the energetic Honorary Secretary of the Library and the permanent staff working under him, on whom and on the special staff sanctioned by Government have fallen all the arduous and exacting work connected with the rapid preparation of the work for the Press.

Subject: First Aṣṭaka. First Adhyāya of Ṛg-Veda.

Aṣṭaka I-1-1 to I-1-37] [Maṇḍala I-1-1 to I-5-19

The Ṛg-Veda consists of eight aṣṭakas, each aṣṭaka being composed of eight adhyāyas, each adhyāya being again subdivided into a number of vargas. The general classification adopted in the majority of Ṛg-veda manuscripts is the one stated above. The classification of the Ṛg-Veda, generally followed in printed editions of the Ṛg-Veda in India and abroad is the division of the Ṛg-Veda into ten maṇḍalas, each maṇḍala being composed of a number of anuvākas, each anuvāka being again subdivided into a number of sūktas, each sūkta consisting of a number of ṛks. References to both kinds of classification are given wherever necessary.

Remarks:—See introduction for detailed information regarding printed editions of the Ṛg-Veda. The Mss. is in good condition. Words are accented in red ink. Written in a bold and beautiful hand. All pages have gold borders. On the title page there is a coloured picture of God Gaṇapati in a sitting posture in the left half and in the right half, four ṛṣis are standing greeting the God. The last page is decorated with flowers. The manuscript is about 100 years old, being written on good English paper bearing watermarks ranging from 1825 to 1829.

Subject :

Aṣṭaka I-1-1 to 1-1-37] [Maṇḍala I-1-1 to I-5-19.

Remarks :—The paper is of Indian manufacture. Ṛg-Veda has come down in two rescensions, known as शाकलशाखा and बाष्कलशाखा. The more popular and widely known rescension is that of the शाकलशाखा and hence the name शाकलसंहिता for the Ṛg-Veda. The Manuscript is accented and appears to belong to the middle of the eighteenth century.

Beginning, end, colophon and subject—Same as No. 9.

Remarks :—The title page is an illuminated pictorial representation of the marriage of Pārvatī and Parameśvara. The scene depicts the celebration of the marriage, before Agni as the witness, when Himavān and Menā, the parents of Pārvatī, pour water into the joined hands of Pārvatī and Parameśvara. On Parameśvara's side are represented his Purohit, Viṣṇu, Brahmā, Agni and Indra and on Pārvatī's side are represented the friends of the bride, the purohit, Gods and Ṛṣis with the attendant ladies of the royal court of Himavān.

Remarks :—The beginning of the Sixth Adhyāya "इन्द्रो मदाय वावृधे(धे)" is given after the colophon. The title page contains a pictorial representation of the battle between God Śiva and the three Asuras. Śiva is represented riding in a chariot (Bhūmi) with the Sun and Moon as wheels, the four Vedas as horses, Brahman as charioteer, Meru as bow, Ādiśeṣa as bow-string, Viṣṇu as arrow and Agni as the arrow-tip—these details are fully mentioned in the following devotional Śloka:-

क्षोणी यस्य रथो रथाङ्गयुगलं चन्द्रार्कबिम्बद्वयं

Remarks:—The beginning of the Seventh Adhyāya "द्वे विरूपे चरतः स्वर्थे" is given after the colophon. The title page represents pictorially an incident from the 'Cyutapuramāhātmyam' in Sanskrit, Cyutapura being the modern Vaḷuvūr near Māyavaram. The picture shows the Lord Parameśvara in naked uniform (nagna) playing on the Vīṇā when the wives of the sages compete with one another in being the first to bestow alms to the Divine Beggar and the sages standing behind in bewilderment at the uncontrollable conduct of their wives. The last page is fully decorated with flowers.

Remarks:—The title page represents pictorially Sage Durvāsa's return from Kailāsa with a divine lotus flower which he presents to Indra whom he meets in Svarga on the way. Indra receives the flower and indifferently places it on the head of his Airāvata. The flower is thrown down and is trampled upon by the Airāvata with his foot, whereupon the Airāvata is condemned to wander in the land of the mortals as a wild elephant. The release of Airāvata from his bondage on his worshipping Kadambavaneśvara is also portrayed.

Remarks:—The beginning of the eighth Adhyāya—"इदं श्रेष्ठं ज्योतिषां ज्योतिरागात्" is given after the colophon. The title page illustrates the continuation of the story narrated in No. 18. The wives of the sages continue to follow the Lord wherever He went, even forgetting their clothes, whereupon the sages grow angry and perform Ābhicārika homas invoking various evil spirits to destroy the Lord. From the homa arise the all-consuming Bāḍaba-agni which finds refuge in the Lord's palm, the tiger which is slain and whose skin adorns the waist of the Lord, the deer which perches itself on the Lord's left hand, the serpents which decorate the Lord coiling round His body, the axe which is received by the Lord as a weapon and the demons who are promptly trampled upon by the Lord with His feet.

Remarks:—See Remarks under Nos. 16 and 19. Another incident from the Hālāsyamāhātmya is illustrated in the title page. The dream by a Vaiśya named Dhanañjaya of the worship of Lord Kadambavaneśvara by the Gods, his report of the dream to his King Kulaśekhara Pāṇḍya, the expedition to the place of worship by the king accompanied by his ministers, their meeting a Siddha on the way who advises them to build a temple dedicated to the Lord and details regarding the building of the temple and a city, evidently Madhurā round the temple, are also given. The handing over of the crown by Kulaśekhara Pāṇḍya to his son Malayadhvaja Pāṇḍya is also portrayed. The last page contains very elaborate painting depicting cashew nut plants.

Subject : Third Aṣṭaka. Second Adhyāya.

Aṣṭaka. III-2-1 to III-2-26] [Maṇḍala III-3-30 to III-4-39.

Remarks :—The beginning of the Third Adhyāya "इंद्रं त्वा वृषभं वयं" is given after the Colophon.

The title page continues the story narrated in No. 69 in pictures. As a result of the churning, the deadly poison हालाहल is engendered. Viṣṇu, Brahmā, Indra and Agni pray to Śiva and Pārvatī to protect them from the all consuming poison. Śiva accedes to their request and drinks the poison himself, whereupon Pārvatī, solicitous of Śiva's life, stops the poison in Śiva's neck; hence the name Nīlakaṇṭha (blue-necked) to Śiva.

Remarks :—The title page continues in pictures the story narrated in No. 70. The three countries, Cera, Coḷa and Pāṇḍya suffer from want of rain. The Kings of these three lands pray to Sage Agastya who advises them to practise the Somavāra-vrata or fasting on Mondays to please the Lord Śiva. As a result of the penance they are endowed with a power of travelling in the air at will, whereupon Indra asks them what they wanted. Indra accedes to the request of the Kings of Cera and Coḷa for plenty of rain but refuses the same to the King of the Pāṇḍyas as King Ugrapāṇḍya was insolent enough to seat himself on an equal seat with him. Indra and Ugra-pāṇḍya fight each other. Ugrapāṇḍya uses his second gift—the divine bangle referred to in No. 62 and chops off the crown of Indra. This incident is illustrated in full detail as narrated in the Tiruviḷayāḍalpurāṇam. The last page is beautifully illustrated with flowers.

Remarks :—The title page continues the story narrated in No. 74, in pictures. King Ugrapāṇḍya is blessed with a son named Vīrapāṇḍya but still the King is sad as famine is raging in his land. In dream, a sage advises him to attack the Mahāmeru which has been growing so much as even to impede the regular course of the Sun and Moon, with his third gift the flower bouquet (Vide No. 62). The King accordingly attacks the mountain Mahāmeru with the flower bouquet whereupon untold treasures are divulged to him from underneath the mountain. The King gathers the treasures and distributes them lavishly to all his subjects. The King now satisfied, crowns his son Vīrapāṇḍya as King and absorbs himself into the Lord Kadambavaneśvara.

Remarks:—The beginning of the Seventh Adhyāya "इंद्रं वो नरः सख्याय सेपुः" is given after the colophon.

The title page pictorially illustrates another incident from the Śivapurāṇa. Once Brahmā woke up the sleeping Viṣṇu and accosted Him "child, wake up." At this, Viṣṇu grew angry; and both decided to fight out the issue. The Gods grew frightened at the unpleasant turn of events, and prayed to Paramaśiva to put a stop to the duel. Paramaśiva thereupon appeared on the scene in the form of a Jyotirliṅga standing in full enveloping heaven and earth. Brahmā and Viṣṇu were now convinced of another being greater to themselves, stopped fighting and looked wonder-stricken at the Jyotirliṅga.

Brahmā assumes the form of a haṃsa (Swan) to find out the top of the Jyotirliṅga. The haṃsa, after entering the heavenly regions, meets on the way with a descending Ketaka flower which has been jerked down from the top of the Jyotirliṅga. The haṃsa asks the flower to tell a lie to bear witness to the effect that he had seen the top of the Jyotirliṅga, reinforcing his argument by the maxim,

"इति पंचमाष्टके चतुर्थो(ऽ)ध्यायः ॥ यद्द्य नत्रावरुणं तु वै सौर्याद्योद्वां सप्तोत्सूर्यः षट्काद्यास्तिस्रः सौर्य[ऽ]उद्वेतीति चार्द्धपंचमादिविपंच प्रतिवां प्रमित्रयोरेकोनागायत्रं दशम्यादयस्त्रयः प्रगाथाः पुरउ-ष्णिक् चतुर्थ्याद्या दशादित्यास्तिस्रः सौर्यः प्रतिवां दशाश्विनं तु तदा शुभ्रा नवसप्ताद्या विराज[ऽ] आवां रथोष्टावा विश्ववारा सप्तापस्वसुः षट्कागोमता पंचा तारिष्मेमा[ऽ] उत्रां षट् प्रागाथं ऽयुषा[ऽ] अष्टा [ऽ]उषस्यं तु वा[ऽ] उदुसप्तो रुरुचे षट् प्रतिपंचऽयुषाः प्रतितृचं ॥"

On page 45, "इति पंचमाष्टके पंचमो(ऽ)ध्यायः ॥ प्रत्युषट् प्रगाथमिन्द्राव-रुणाहृजागतं तु युवां नरावो पंच पुनीषे धीराष्टौ वारुणं हरदत्सप्त प्रश्नं ध्युवमंत्यापाशविमोचिनी मोषुपंच गायत्रं जगत्यंतं प्रवीरया सप्तवायव्यं हैंद्रश्च याद्विवदुक्ताः कुविदंगा वायो पंचशुचिन्वष्टा वैन्द्राग्नं त्विमं वां—दशगायत्रमंत्यानुष्टुप् प्रक्षोदशाषट् सारस्वतं तृतीया सरस्वते बृहदुप्रगाथः पस्तारपंक्तिः परा तिस्रो गायत्र्यः सरस्वते यज्ञे दशैन्द्रा बार्हस्पत्यं मंत्यैंद्री च तृतीया नवम्या वैन्द्रा ब्राह्मणस्पत्ये[ऽ]अध्वर्यवः सत्योक्तदेवतां त्यापरो वैष्णवं तूरुमित्यै-न्द्र्यश्च तिस्रो नूमर्तः ॥ ६ ॥"

Each sentence in the index refers to the presiding devatā invoked in the various ṛks forming the Sūkta. For example "यद्द्य मैत्रावरुणं तु वै सौर्याद्योद्वां" meaning that this sūkta beginning with 'यद्द्य' has मित्रावरुणौ as presiding devatās and the first ṛk is सूर्यदेवताक ।

Remarks :—The beginning of the Second Adhyāya "ये यज्ञेन दक्षिणया समक्ता" is given after the Colophon.

The title page contains a pictorial representation of the worship of Śivalinga by Tripād Maharsi on one side and on the off-side three sages and two devout brāhmins are standing in an attitude of prayer. The place of worship is in or near Cidambaram. From the way in which the brāhmin devotees, are depicted, it seems probable that the Dīksitas of Cidam-baram at that age had their tufts not in the centre but at the back of the head as is usual with others.

The title page contains a pictorial representation of the worship of the Śivaliṅga in Cidambaram by a Brāhmin devotee, evidently the chief representative of the Dīkṣitas who are official priests at Cidambaram for the worship of Sri Naṭarāja. In Nos. 247, 251 & 262 the title page represented the worship of the Mahāśivaliṅga at Cidambaram by the Sages Vyāghrapād, Patañjali and Tripād. This series of pictures is closed by No. 268 which traces the worship down to the modern Dīkṣita of Cidambaram.

Remarks:—The beginning of the Fourth Adhyāya "वि हि सो-तोरसृक्षत" is given after the colophon. The last section in this Ms. "अविधवा+शतम्" is the 22nd. section of Ṛg-veda Khila [See M. Muller's Second Edition of Ṛg-veda. Vol. IV. Page 534].

The title page contains a pictorial representation of the worship of the Lord Vaidyeśvara by the ten-headed demon Rāvaṇa. The place of worship is the modern Vaidīśvarankoil in the Tanjore Dt. Rāvaṇa made the supreme sacrifice to satisfy the Lord Mahādeva by offering his heads one after another in the sacrificial fire. When the tenth and last bit was about to be offered, the Lord was pleased and stopped Rāvaṇa at the last minute. He appeared as the Divine Doctor and reset the lost heads on Rāvaṇa. Hence the name of Vaidyeśvara to the Lord Mahādeva. On one side of the title page, Rāvaṇa is shown worshipping the Lord and on the other side his attendant demons all standing in an attitude of ecstatic prayer. The demons are depicted with long upturned noses in the form of a scythe.

Subject: Pañcarudra Sūkta.

This sūkta is composed of the following:—

I.	कद्रुद्राय॰	Aṣṭaka.	I. 3. 26-27.	(9 Ṛks).
II.	इमा रुद्राय॰	,,	I. 8. 5-6.	(11 Ṛks).
III.	आ ते पितर्मरुतां॰	,,	II. 7. 16-18.	(18 Ṛks).
IV.	सोमारुद्रा॰	,,	V. 1. 18.	(4 Ṛks).
V.	इमा रुद्राय स्थिर॰	,,	V. 4. 13.	(4 Ṛks).

Total No. of Ṛks 46.

Remarks:—The Name "Pañcarudra" is quite consistent with the contents of this Sūkta since the main sections of this sūkta are five and extols the virtues of god Rudra. The विनियोग of the पञ्चरुद्रसूक्त is thus given in the Ṛgvidhāna of Śaunaka:

"रौद्रीभिष्षड्भिरीशानं तुष्टूयाद्यो दिने दिने ।
स नारीसहितः शान्तिं शंकरात् प्राप्नुयात् सदा ॥
एतेनैव षडर्चेन जुहुयादाज्यमन्वहम् ।

इति पुरुषसूक्तं समाप्तम् ॥

Subject: Puruṣa Sūkta.

This Sūkta is composed of the following four Sections:

I.	सहस्रशीर्षाः+संति देवाः	Aṣṭaka.	VIII. 4. 17-19.
II.	अतो देवाः+परमं पदं	,,	I. 2. 7.
III.	विश्वतश्चक्षुः+देव एकः	,,	VIII. 3. 16. (3rd Ṛk).
IV.	संसृष्टं धनं+अपनिलयंतां	,,	VIII. 3. 19. (7th Ṛk).

Remarks:—In these four, the second section 'अतो देवाः' forms also a section of Viṣṇu Sūkta and the fourth—'संसृष्टं धनं०—' forms also the last Ṛk of Manyu Sūkta. The Ms. is accented and is in excellent condition.

The विनियोग of the पुरुषसूक्त is given in detail in the Ṛgvidhāna of Śaunaka. The following extracts give a good summary of the same:

Subject: Rātri Sūkta.

This Sūkta is composed of the following sections:—

I. रात्रिव्यख्यदायती० Astaka. VIII. 7. 14. (1—8 Ṛks).

II. आरात्रिपार्थिवं+ सुतरसि तरसे नमः —Ṛgveda khila. Serial No. 25. 1-13 Ṛks.

Remarks:—In this khila section the 10th, 11th and 14th verses are omitted and verses 12 and 13 are interchanged. There is one last sheet in this Ms. which contains the last three Ṛks of the 25th khila noted above. Compare Ṛg-veda khila, in M. Muller's Second Edition of Ṛg-veda, Vol. IV. Pages 535—536.

The विनियोग of the रात्रिसूक्त is thus given in the Ṛg-vidhāna of Śaunaka:—

" रात्रीम्प्रपद्येन्मनसा शुचिः पर्णव्रतो निशि ।

Subject: Black Yajurveda of the Taittirīyas. First Kāṇḍa. 1-8 Praśnas.

The Black Yajurveda Saṃhitā consists of seven Kāṇḍas or Aṣṭakas, each Kāṇḍa or Aṣṭaka divided into a number of Praśnas or Prapāṭhakas, each Praśna or Prapāṭhaka again sub-divided into a number of Anuvākas, each Anuvāka again sub-divided into a number of Pañcādis or Pañcāśats.

Remarks :—At the end of each Anuvāka in this Ms. a Pañcādi index is given. For example,

"बृहतः सवसारथः पपुरिंचाद्विवो जनंना पंचविंशतिश्च ॥" meaning that the Pañcādis of the (22nd) Anuvāka of the 8th Praśna end in words "बृहतः, सवसा" etc. After this there are also three indices given at the end of each Praśna in this Ms.—for example,

(1) अनुमत्या आग्नेय + अग्नाविष्णूद्वाविंशतिः ॥

—giving the beginnings of each Anuvāka in the (8th) Praśna;

(2) अनुमत्यै यथासति + द्विचत्वारिंशत् ॥— giving the beginnings of the groups of every ten Pañcādis of the (8th) Praśna;

(3) अनुमत्या उस्रियासु ॥

giving the beginning and ending words of the (8th) Praśna. The Ms. is accented. This system of giving indices is throughout followed in this family of Mss. of Black Yajurveda Saṃhitā. The Ms. is in excellent condition.

Subject: First Kāṇḍa. Seventh Praśna. 1-13 Anuvākas.

Remarks :—At the end of each Anuvāka an index is given of the beginnings of each Pañcādi of that Anuvāka along with the number of the remaining vākyas of the last Pañcādi—'' जरसा

मातेे हर्यश्व सुवीर्येस्याभ्येकं च ॥" After that, an incomplete version of the Anuvāka index giving the beginnings of each Anuvāka in the 7th Praśna is given at the end of this Ms:—

"पाक यज्ञꣳस्ꣳश्रवाः परोक्षं बर्हिषोहं बृ (ब्रु) वामगन्मेत्याह देवस-वितर्देवस्या...॥"

Dr Burnell calls this Ms. Āpastamba Pākayajña Prayoga and says further that this Ms. contains 56 sheets. But this Ms. contains only 20 sheets and this is only a portion of the Taittirīya Saṃhitā, as described in the Subject column above. There are two more Mss. however, not noticed by Burnell, which go by the name Pākayajña. We group them under the same No. 2531 as they all belong to the same series. The Ms. is unaccented. The Ms. is in a fairly good condition.

"इति ऋगर्थरत्नमालायां प्रथमो(ऽ)ध्यायः"

Subject : Ṛgartharatnamālā—a commentary on some selected ṛks of Ṛg-Veda Saṃhitā. First Adhyāya complete and a part of second Adhyāya.

Remarks :—This Ms. abruptly breaks off at the beginning of the Second Adhyāya. This Ms. is in a fairly good condition. It also contains four fragmentary leaves written in Nandināgari script. Regarding the author of this Ms. Dr. Burnell observes on page 4 foot-note of his Catalogue as follows :—"It appears from Verzeichniss. p. 27 (No. 106), that one Varadattasuta Ānartīya commented the Śāṅkhāyana Śrauta Sūtra, and this is probably the writer here alluded to (in the beginning of this Ms). It seems to me not unlikely that this Ms. (described above) is a fragment of Mahīdhara's commentary on the Ṛg-Veda ("Catalogue of Sanskrit Mss. existing in Oudh", pp. 2, 3 of Fasc. i.). There is no other commentary (except perhaps Ātmānanda's which is in the I. O. Library) that I can suggest. I have, however not seen either." He also adds—"As the author (of this Ms.) considers the Ṛg-Veda to teach Nārāyaṇa to be the Supreme Being, this commentary cannot be old."

Subject : Sāma Veda Bhāṣya. Pūrvārcika. Āgneya, Aindra, Pāvamāna; Āraṇa and Śakvari Parvas.

Remarks :—The Ms. is in a fairly good condition. Regarding the author Burnell has the following in page 11 of his catalogue. "Bharata Svamin was the son of Nārāyaṇa and Yajñadā and lived at Seringapatam, in Mysore about the end of the 13th century under the patronage of the Hosala family a Canarese dynasty originally Jains, and converted by Rāmānujācārya about 1150 to the Vaiṣṇava faith. Rāma reigned at Devagiri from 1272, 3—1310. and this commentary must, therefore, have been composed within that period. It is very concise, and there is every reason to believe that only the Pūrva-ārcika, Āraṇyaka Saṃhitā, and Mahanāmnī hymns were commented on by Bharata Svāmin, for there is no trace of a commentary on the Uttarārcika by this author; and here 9,112 (Bharata-svāmin's commentary) and 9,108 (Sāyaṇa's commentary on the Uttara-Arcika) formed part of the same Ms. originally. I have seen this occur in another instance. Śaunaka, the Aitareyabrhāmaṇa, Āśvalāyana sutra, the Taittirīyaka, Bahvṛca Upaniṣad and apparently Yāska are quoted, so far as I have examined this commentary."

Subject: Black Yajur-Veda Saṃhitā Bhāṣya—Jñāna Yajña. First Kāṇḍa. 1-8 Prapāṭhakas.

Remarks :—The Ms. is in very good condition. Regarding the author Bhaṭṭabhāskara, Dr. Burnell gives the following on page 7 of his Catalogue :—"Bhaṭṭa Bhāskara Miśra is quoted by Sāyaṇa, and according to tradition lived about 950—1000 A. D. He must not be confounded with Kaśyapa Bhaṭṭa Bhāskara, who wrote a Sāmavedārṣeyadīpa, or index (about 1000 granthas) to the metres, ṛṣis and deities of the Sāmaveda P. A., and who probably lived in the fourteenth century. (C. C. on the Sāmaveda Brāhmaṇas are attributed to this author, but I have not seen them. This Bhaṭṭa Bhāskara quotes Bharata Svāmin). The quotations in this work, though meagre, are interesting. In the parts I have been able to examine, besides Bhavasvāmin, the Taittirīya Anukramaṇī, Mānava Dharmaśāstra and Pāṇini, Yāska K. i. 1, 13—regarding 'पयः' (N. ii. 5), Pr. 2, 80—regarding 'अतिथि' (N. IV. 5) are cited. In K. ii. 1, 5, the opinion of Bharadvāja is quoted. In the same Kāṇḍa, Praśna iv. Anuvaka 14, there is an interesting discussion on a passage cited from some work on Astronomy –

अत्र चन्द्रगुणकीर्तनेनाऽदित्या एव स्तूयते.... तथा हि सूर्योग्निमयो-
गोळश्चन्द्रोऽम्बुमयः स्वच्छः । इति तस्मादस्य दिवसकरमरीचिसमा-
श्लेषेण भास्वरत्वं भवति ; यथाहुः—

भाग्रहाणां गोळार्धानि स्वच्छायया विवर्णानि ।
अर्धानि यथासारं सूर्याभिमुखानि (प्र) दीप्यन्ते ॥

इति तस्माच्चन्द्रमसो गोळार्धं सूर्याभिमुखं यदा चकास्ति किं सर्वदा चकास्ति किं इति नोऽपलभ्यते श्रूयतां ; अमावास्यायां चन्द्रमसः ; तदा चन्द्रमस उपरि यद्बिम्बार्धं तद्देशेषं अवभासयति सविता । चन्द्रस्यामावस्योपलक्षितोपरिबिम्बकेन्द्राद्यथा यथा पश्चादादित्योऽ-वलंबते, तथा तथा चन्द्रमसो बिम्बकेन्द्रमध्यवरतोवलम्बते, तत्के-न्द्रवशाच्चन्द्रमसो बिम्बार्धशेषमाभासयति सविता यावत् एवाऽ-स्योपलक्षित बिम्बपरिध्योरधोवलम्बते तावच्चन्द्रमसो बिम्बस्यास्मा-भिरुपलक्ष्यते शेषमुपस्थितत्वान्नोपलभ्यते । सूर्याभिमुखं भास्वरम-पि अस्माभिरुपलब्धुमयोग्यत्वात् ॥

In Pṛ. iv. the Vāyupurāṇa, several upaniṣads and also authors of Smṛtis are quoted (v. Z. D. M. G. XIX. 154). Towards the end this commentary becomes a mere paraphrase with an occasional brief explanation of an unusual form or accent. At the end of the Kāṇḍas in some Mss., it is stated that Bhaṭṭa Bhāskara composed this commentary;

'एष निष्पावकेशाके कौशिकान्वयजन्मना ।
भट्टभास्करमिश्रेण ज्ञानयज्ञः प्रकीर्तितः ॥'

This proves that he was a Telugu Brāhman, as they only take names of plants for their family names. His name was thus (re-translating the two words) Anumula Bhaṭṭa Bhāskara. This family name is still a common one."

Remarks:—This Ms. is an abridgement of Jñānayajña of Bhaṭṭabhāskara. Dr. Burnell's Remarks on this Ms. that it is 'apparently the original of the last', namely 9049 a, is quite unfounded, since these two Mss. deal with entirely different texts. See subjects on Ms. 672 and 687. This Ms. contains after the 8th leaf, the Sāyaṇa's commentary also on the 6th and 7th Prapāṭhakas of the 4th Kāṇḍa. See 687. The Ms. is in good condition.

Remarks :—This Ms. is evidently an abridgement of the Jñānayajña of Bhaṭṭabhāskara. Hence the authorship attributed to Vidyāraṇya in the colophon of this Ms. is rather doubtful. The Ms. is in a fairly good condition, though the sides of some leaves are rat-eaten.

Remarks :—The Ms. is in good condition. This is a metrcial commentary on the Rudra Praśna of the Kṛṣṇayajurveda. The author of this commentary is Ahobala son of Nṛsimha Mahopādhyāya and Rāmakka pupil of Sadāśiva and a descendant of the Bhāskara family. He says he wrote this commentary at the instance of Śiva and refers to another work of his, viz., the Nyāyamahāmaṇi, in which he says, he has explained everything more fully.
